The Lord said to Nephi that in our day, the last days, many would say, “A Bible! A Bible! We have got a Bible, and there cannot be anymore Bible.” To them, the Lord responded: “What do the Gentiles mean? Do they remember the travails, and the labors, and the pains of the [Jewish prophets], and their diligence unto me, in bringing forth salvation unto [them]?” (2 Ne. 29:3–4.)

This valuable book by Robert J. Matthews helps us to appreciate the value of the Holy Bible as well as to understand its history, teachings and role in the restored gospel.

President Spencer W. Kimball invited us to become acquainted with the LDS edition of the Bible: “We now have a wonderful new edition of the King James Version of the Holy Bible with a topical index and a whole new reference system. ... all of which should encourage further involvement with the scriptures, as individuals and as families.” And this excellent book will help us follow that invitation and strengthen our study of the Bible.
