Follow the heartwarming tales of two Virginia sisters who make their way out west in search of new beginnings and a chance at true love.

The Business Arrangement

In post-war Charleston, Caroline and her sister are on the brink of being married off to one of her uncle's lecherous friends. In order to get out of an unwanted marriage Caroline decides to do the practical thing—find a marriage match of her own and start a new life out west as a mail order bride.

After exchanging letters with Kyle, a widowed Colorado rancher who needs a new wife to help care for his children, Caroline packs up her things to make a go of it, even though the arrangement doesn't promise love or romance.

When Caroline arrives in Colorado to take the first steps in her new life, she finds Kyle cold and removed, still cloaked in grief over his previous wife's death. And although the marriage was to be little more than a business arrangement, Caroline finds herself wishing for something more—but will Kyle be able to see past his pain to a second chance at happiness?

The Long, Slow Thaw

Mattie has always been a romantic at heart, but tragedy has left her fragile and wondering if happy endings only happen in fairy tales.

After a long year of upheaval and grief, Mattie musters her resolve and decides to follow in her sister's footsteps and become a mail order bride out west. Agreeing to marry single rancher Jonas is an improvement over marrying one of her uncle's friends, but Mattie isn't over the pain of losing her former fiancé in the cruelest of ways.

Happy-go-lucky Jonas lives solo on a lonely stretch of plain outside Colorado Springs. When he meets Mattie, he thinks she's perfect, but after hearing her tragic story he wonders how he can prove himself trustworthy.

During the worst storm Colorado has seen in a decade, Mattie must confront her pain and allow her heart to trust again. And the sweet man she's trapped in the town hotel with is probably the best place to start.

A story of hope, fear, new beginnings and true love.

This is a sweet and clean Western romance and contains two stand alone stories that are part of a series, plus a bonus story.
