Angel Eyes Tess St. John

After a near fatal wound, undercover FBI agent Roy Hansen trades in his gun and badge to be part-owner of a nightclub in Texas. His first day in Houston, he's blown away when he's reunited with a woman he met twenty years earlier. Since her husband's death five years ago, accountant Summer Snow has focused on her career and her children. She refuses to open her heart to any man in fear of loving and losing. Meeting Roy again, he ignites feelings in her she hasn't felt in a long time—some she's never felt before. Roy patiently chips away at Summer's resolve, desperate to learn what they can share together. And when his undercover past roars back into his life, he vows not to let it tear them apart. But first, he's got to stay alive.
