His Jar of Hearts: A Broken Fairy Tale S.P. Cervantes

Joey McMillian is man that everyone loves. Women fall at his feet everywhere he goes, and men want to be him. Working at the fire department in the small shore town where he grew up, staying close to the only constant in his life, his best friends, has been all Joey thought he wanted in life. While his friends have all found love and started families, Joey bounces from woman to woman, never opening himself up to the opportunity of loving someone and being truly loved in return.

Kat Pierce is a fiercely independent thirty something who knows Joey's womanizing ways far too well. When she lands a teaching job and moves into her cousin's house at the shore, she finds herself with Joey more than she would like. There's always been an attraction between the two of them, but Kat knows better than to act on her feelings. Her heart has been broken before, and she knows Joey is a one way ticket to having it broken again.

Will Joey and Kat find the love they are looking for?

HIS JAR OF HEARTS is the third book of the A BROKEN FAIRY TALE SERIES.
