The Best is Yet to Come: A Christian Romance Story Nikki Smith

After being delivered from a lifestyle of wild sex, partying, and everything under the sun, twenty-eight year old Shanita Thompson is a woman after God's own heart.

When her faith and strong belief in the Lord causes her to make some questionable decisions, she loses not only her career and her financial stability — but she also loses her longtime boyfriend. In other words, she loses the man she'd thought loved her.

Just when Shanita thinks all is lost, she's offered a great-paying job by the very handsome and successful Justin Perry.

Despite fighting it tooth and nail, Justin knows he's attracted to the beautiful, saved, and single Shanita. He knows it from the very beginning. But he's in no position to give his heart away.

Plus, with his spirit broken and his faith almost nonexistent, he's sure he'll never get involved with a woman who is saved.

Despite their differences and the obstacles in the way, the two soon find themselves in love.

But is their love meant to be? Will they end up with their very own happy-ever-after?
