Lauren Polkowski is a maverick, a pioneer, the first woman to play professional football. So many people, especially young women, admire her and want to see her succeed. Yet there are also many people who despise her and want nothing more than to see her fail. Despite her superstar, iconic status, there is one very important thing missing from Lauren's life: A Significant Other.

She's looking to roll around, not settle down. A chance encounter with a certain blonde cheerleader will give her precisely the opportunity that she's been waiting for.

But they'll have to be careful. If the cheerleader's jealous and possessive boyfriend, who just happens to be the team's star quarterback finds out, there will be hell to pay. Everything that Lauren has worked for could be taken from her.

But Lauren's never been one to back down from a fight. She's already overcome too much in her life to be afraid of a little competition for the blonde, pom-pom girl's affections. Things are going to get very steamy in the team sauna.
