Ever since he saved her from almost getting gang raped, Raoul hasn't been able to get Zoe out of his mind. When he's with a woman, it's Zoe he thinks about, but he can never have her. This MC life is not for her.

Zoe has become obsessed with the rough biker who saved her over six months ago. She is trying to move on, but she can't forget Raoul. When she finds out that her new roommate's boyfriend knows of the club, she refuses to pass up his invitation to a club party.

What she finds sends her running. But Raoul can't believe Zoe was in the club, and now he's not going to let her get away. He'll have her for his own, claim her as his old lady, and soon take her as his wife.

The passion between them is fierce, the lust burning brighter than any fire, but how can their relationship last? She's in college, and he's part of a deadly MC club. What will happen when Zoe discovers that Raoul has lied to her? Will she run from him?

After all, she's not the only virgin he's bedded, so how can she be special to him?
