Mary Magdalene maria valtorta

Her physical beauty and indomitable spirit, her upper-class standing, the members of her family, her scandalous, licentious behavior in the worldly milieu of the Romans, her conversion that does not appease her inveterate passionateness, but rather directs her from a love of damnation towards a love of salvation ... From the literary work of Maria Valtorta entitled The Poem of the Man-God, passages from various chapters, or entire chapters altogether have been drawn out and interconnected, all regarding the figure of Mary of Magdalene. All but a biography on the Magdalene
