Olivia and the Family Secret: The Hamington Chronicles Volume 1 Matt McCartney

Being an eleven year old princess in the Kingdom of Hamington isn't all it's cracked up to be, at least for Princess Olivia. Her father thinks he knows what's best for her. Her mother constantly pries into her hobbies, plus she has an older brother to look after. And if that's not enough to contend with, she's just made friends with a slightly magical elf, has to recover the kingdom's magical golden egg, outsmart the king of the dragons, liberate a pile of treasure from a troll's bridge and win a royal jousting competition.

The first volume of the Hamington Chronicles comprises three stories:

Olivia and the Golden Egg

Princess Olivia is determined to help her father recover the kingdom's magical golden egg when it is stolen, unfortunately her father can never find out. Set against a fantastical background, Olivia and her new friend Pick the elf set out across the kingdom to find the missing egg. However, they might have taken on more than they realised when they find out that the egg was taken by the king of the dragons, and what is more he now has her father and brother Henry trapped in his lair.

Olivia and the Troll's Treasure

Once again Princess Olivia must come to her father's rescue without him knowing and this time she has to do it before he falls foul of a large angry mob. With a mountain of dragon poo to clean up and the kingdom's treasury empty, Olivia and Pick go in search of the fabled city of the trolls and its treasure-filled bridge. But Olivia has one more problem to worry about, her mother is starting to become suspicious of her comings and goings.

Olivia and the Junior Joust

When an old rivalry resurfaces, Olivia's father lets his emotions get the better of him and as a result it's Henry that finds himself in trouble. Olivia must take her brother's place in a brutal jousting contest to prevent her father losing face with his fiercest rival, Baron Rendar. But with her mother paying close attention, will Olivia be able to win the contest and keep her secret identity as a young knight safe?
