'Til the End of Time Diana Taylor

'til the End of Time is a purely fictional account of the enduring love affair between Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, MGM stars of the thirties and forties. It depicts how things could have transpired had they not been denied the right to love and the storyline is built on factual references from the controversial book 'Sweethearts:' maceddy.com published after many years of research by Sharon Rich. Known the world over as America's Singing Sweethearts, Jeanette and Nelson made eight magical films together (now being released on DVD) whilst conducting a timeless, private affair forbidden by studio mogul Louis B. Mayer.
