You know you can write. Maybe you're even making money writing. But are you making enough money writing? Or is it just a hobby, getting you more in computers, getting you more than you're earning? Are you writing 'regression analysis', 95 other different writers never make enough money to quit their day job.

What about the top five percent of writers --- the ones making big money, right? A small percentage of the top five percent are. That's the headliners --- brand name writers like Stephen King and Dean Koontz. Journalists (and writers) are doing OK too. That's the genre writers, writing romance, mystery and suspense, and non-fiction. Writers in these genres work with a proven method and you can do that too!

The instructions inside this book will help you write a book with ease.

I've been making good money as an author for over 25 years. It's fun, rewarding and lucrative.
