“The natural aspect of life and the artificial thing are antagonistic, because the human body is a natural divine essence that cannot accept artificial practices that alter its organic integrity. This because the natural essence is God’s creation for a finality, and the artificial aspect is the creation of ordinary men for a different finality. For this reason we cannot subordinate the body to artificial or unnatural practices that alter the body’s integrity or Unitary Principle. When this occurs the body becomes sick and reacts by generating different symptoms of disease, but not different types of diseases.” “The ingestion of meat obscures the intellect and degrades the evolution of the triangle of body, mind and spirit.” “A vegetarian diet based on fruits and vegetables is a very important factor to cure cancer.” “In this book, the reader will find all the right indications for the legitimate healing of cancer or any so called disease, but this duty must be done through rational or natural medical arts and through the respect of the universal natural laws created by God. “
