Every week we meet angry people, guilty people, fearful people, hurting people. And many of them come to you for help, for hope and for a way out. Wherever he went, Jesus too met such people. How did he help them face their problems honestly? How did he lead them to forgiveness and wholeness? What example can he offer us? This answers these questions with a fascinating survey of the many different encounters Jesus had. Included are many insights of leading psychologists to create a Christian model for counseling. Here you will see how Jesus brought people into the wholeness of the kingdom of God. Excellent for group study.
