Stamps In A Passport: The People You Meet In Hostels Steven Robert Weber

Based upon a real life story where the author spent two months travelling around Central America and staying in budget hostels. No itinerary was planned beforehand other than a flight to Liberia, Costa Rica. The stories of the people the author encountered from all over the world are told here. Their stories are unique, just as equally unique as the cultures they come from are. The stories in this book are based on the idea of curiosity and that when you stop being curious about life, you stop living.
