Acajou et Zirphile (French Edition) Charles Pinot Duclos

Acajou et Zirphile est un conte de Charles Duclos, composé à partir d'estampes de François Boucher. Il y décline le thème de la raison et de l'amour. Il exploite de nombreux thèmes du conte de fées : fées et génies, bienveillants ou malfaisants, princes et princesses faits l'un pour l'autre, transformations diverses, têtes perdues et flottantes... Une distinction entre l'esprit (l'art de la conversation et des bons mots) et l'esprit (la raison) est ainsi développée au cours de l'intrigue grâce au personnage d'Acajou.
