Tom Gillet's army career was his world. After attempting to force an entrance into a suspected terrorist's hideout in Afghanistan, he was pulled back by a young Afghan boy before an IED exploded, and he lost a foot when it might have been his life. In reprisal, the Taliban murdered the boy's family as an example to anyone foolish enough to assist the coalition forces. Seeking one more slice of action and riddled with guilt. Under his own steam Gillet returns to Afghanistan to repay the debt, armed with the knowledge the boy has been sold as a dancing boy into child sex slavery.
