After her father's sudden death, Sarah Peyton is sold off as a debtor's slave to a settlement on Europa. After a year of suffering and abuse, she finally manages to grab a chance at escape.

Sneaking onto a cargo ship, she flies off Europa and hopefully towards a new future. Only to find out the ship is bound for the brutal warrior planet of Vistra, full of seven foot warriors, muscular and defined for battle.

Has she just traded one hell for another?

Vitstran warrior Brax is determined to make sure that isn't the case. He is ready to protect her with his body and name but can he protect her from his heart—which has already claimed her as his forever mate?

This novel is based off of the short story of the same title.
