Marriage is considered the foundation of all relationships. Most Muslims ardently desire to get married, sooner or later in life. As the years pass without a single Muslim finding the right person to tie the knot with, pressure from society and the increasing worry of their parents compound their own growing anxiety about the future. Buy this book if you are a single Muslim, or the parent of one, in order to benefit from practical tips and advice about how to handle this trying phase of your life: the harrowing search for that elusive, ideal life partner.
