You want to go to university, like so many people do. The problem is, no-one told you how to be a good student. Or a bad one, for that matter.

Higher education is fantastic. It's also confusing, complicated and difficult in places.

This guide was written to take some of the guesswork out of being a student and to help current and future students navigate the minefields of the educational system and human interaction. Steer clear of the regrets all graduates suffer from and learn about the things we wish we'd known before going to university in the first place.
