The Destiny Project II: Amelia Earhart James Wharton

It is July 2, 1937, and with the threat of war looming, Amelia Earhart takes off from Lae, Papua New Guinea to begin the longest segment of her record-setting flight around the globe. She is never seen again and the mystery of her disappearance has intrigued the world for nearly a century. In the days before the war the world is a very dangerous place. Death and deception are in the air as government agents prowl the shadows and deadly spies extinguish lives for information. It is not a time for the faint of heart. In the present time Kate Darron and Brittany Beardsley, unwilling agents for the secret government agency OSTRO, are given an assignment. Find Amelia Earhart! "But why now after all these years?" Kate asks. "All you need to know is that it is absolutely imperative you find her," their boss answers. The Destiny Project II: Amelia Earhart is an action packed airplane ride across continents and time. A Must Read! Praise for James Wharton's The Destiny Project "It was a page-turner! Well written by a pro. It was also historically correct showing a respect for research." "Sequel please! Get that ole' typewriter a clacking. Your fans await....!" "A cliffhanger! The history was accurate, the writing literate and engaging, and the characters were believable." "Captivating! James Wharton has a great ability to develop his characters around a stirring plot. The Destiny Project was extreme fun!" "Waiting for the sequel! James Wharton writes a fantastic book!"
