THE FARMER'S ALMANAC (The George Washington Carver Bulletins Book 1) George Washington Carver

A Farmer's Almanac - the Famous Scientist's First Published Bulletin

In January 1899, a former child born a slave, whose odds against surviving childhood illnesses and poverty were stacked against him, George Washington Carver rose as one of 19th century's prominent agricultural scientists. Here you can find the author's first of several dozen bulletins that he published throughout his lifetime. The bulletin consists of a short Farmer's Almanac that can serve as a basis of organizing a farm to this day.
