This book is a warning from the Lord about what is coming in the future. First I wish to share my testimony of how I came to know the Lord. As a teenager, I became involved in a gang. I drank quite a bit and I went to a lot of wild parties. I smoked and used pot. I really didn't have such a bad childhood, however, as my parents gave me everything materialistic that I wanted. If I wanted a car, I always got it. But the one thing I really wanted was love. I could not find it at home, so I went out looking for it and got in trouble with the wrong kind of people. Deep inside I was hurting and I thought that I could buy love. When I learned that what I was seeking could not be bought, I returned home. One night when I was very alone, I heard a voice say to me, "YOU HAVE COME TO THE END OF YOUR ROPE...TURN TO ME OR ELSE." I felt God himself was speaking to me, so I asked Jesus into my heart and He gave me real love, true love in my heart. It was a difficult price to pay, but Jesus paid the price to save me when He died on the cross. Several years later while I was driving along the freeway one evening, I invited the Lord to fill me with the Holy Spirit. Suddenly I felt like I was hit with a lightning bolt and almost drove off the road. The Holy Spirit began to speak to me about the future of this world...about gloom and doom. This is why I recorded my messages from the Lord and put them into this book, to warn the people about what is coming soon.
