Deep State (Anton Modin Book 1) Anders Jallai

“Deep State is a terrific spy novel with a tremendously developed voice.”

Swedish National TV4

The most secretive organization in Sweden operates without any accountability to the people, hiding in the shadows: Deep State.

Anton Modin, a former Military Intelligence Special Ops officer, is obsessed with exposing his former employer and boss, the ever present and enigmatic Lieutenant Colonel Chris Loklinth. Modin lost loved ones, his two children and beloved wife, in the M/S Estonia ferry disaster in 1994. In great despair, even 14 years later, he still accuses his former department, Special Ops, to have had a part in the accident. What he doesn't know is that since the end of World War II, Special Ops has been cooperating closely with both the American CIA and the British MI6; together these organizations represent the Deep State. Something deeply secret in the kingdom of Sweden.

Deep State offers the reader an abundance of detail about Sweden's hidden past which casts its shadow well beyond democratic control even today. Owing to his profound knowledge of intelligence matters, Swedish bestselling author Anders Jallai has written a thriller rooted in contemporary Swedish and international intelligence history. The book is based on a true story.

Drawing heavily on his background in the Swedish Navy Seals, as a fighter pilot, and a commercial airline captain, Anders Jallai is now writing and researching full time. He has so far published five books in Scandinavia. Deep State is the first of his Anton Modin series.

“Anders Jallai's superbly and skillfully written thriller is on my list of the top five Swedish thrillers published so far.”

Iwan Morelius, Swedish Academy of Crime Novels.

"Anders Jallai, a Swedish Frederick Forsyth, only better, should have a worldwide audience, while his choice of subject anchors him firmly within Nordic reality.”

Ragnhild Artimo, Forum for Economy and Technology, Helsinki.

“This is a book about men and for men, if you see what I mean. Anders Jallai is one of few who can create this kind of suspense.”

DAST Magazine

“Well-initiated and at times sensational depiction of the intelligence community.”

Svenska Dagbladet, Sweden's leading daily.

“Written in an exciting, fast paced, and thought provoking way.”

Colonel Bo Hugemark, Royal Swedish Academy of Military Sciences.

“Jallai's book is full of content and bloody action. The descriptions of the Stockholm archipelago are most attractive.”

P.G. Näss, Head of Swedish Security Service 1978-1987.

Olof Frånstedt, Head of Swedish Security Service 1967-78.

”Anders Jallai is comparable to writers like John le Carré and Fredric Forsyth. (...) He is a great stylist and knows how to mesmerize the reader.” Mats Garne, Ölandsbladet, Swedish tabloid

“Incredibly skillfully written.”

Expressen, Sweden’s leading tabloid
