Love's a shot in the dark... Owen Daniels is a simple man. He has his friends, two thriving businesses, and a kick ass house he renovated himself. He also talks to his dead mom on a regular basis and can't get a certain curvy brown-eyed woman out of his head. Not to mention the fact that the former soldier and National Guardsman isn't quite the ladies' man his friends think he is. Okay, so maybe he isn't that simple after all. Women's Three Gun Champion Caridad Mathews is back home in Del Rio, Texas, after leaving seven years ago with a vow to never return. But she's just inherited her abuela's house and lost her apartment in Dallas, so back home it is while she tries to get her life back together. The last thing she needs is a sexy ginger distracting her and trying to fight her battles for her. But as Owen and Caridad unearth long-buried secrets, neither can deny the attraction that burns hot between them. Can Caridad learn that trust and vulnerability don't always lead to heartache and pain? And can Owen break down his own walls and accept that he can't save everybody?
