8000 words of lesbian sex, and secret office romance comes to a head

The shit has hit the fan. Lena caught her ex-girlfriend Janet at a motel having sex with two other women. Lena goes in to confront the three women. Michael sees Lena at the motel with Janet and calls Nadia. Michael and Nadia head over to the motel to confront Lena and Janet.

What will happen when Nadia gets to the motel and sees Lena in the motel room with Janet? Will Lena be forced to come forward with her true feelings for Nadia? Or will she let her insecurities allow her to miss out on a chance at true happiness?

From the book:

Though her intimate feelings for Janet were definitely gone, Lena still couldn't help but to feel disappointed that Janet had descended into a world of illicit drug use. Back when the two of them had been an item, Janet's drinking had been the center of an argument or ten, and once or twice, she could've sworn she'd smelled marijuana on Janet's clothing, but never had Lena ever thought that Janet would be snorting powder. She wondered if Janet's drug use consisted of any other illicit products, such as intravenous narcotics. She shuddered at the thought and shook it from her mind as she boldly approached the door of room 124. Lena could hear the R & B music playing behind the door of the motel room, but it wasn't completely drowning out the muffled sounds of moans and cries of sexual pleasure from the three women inside the room. Lena could recognize Janet's voice as Janet cried out loudly.
