The Body Life Assessment System: Finding Your Calling, Fulfilling Your Ministry Steven Johnson

The Body Life Assessment System was specifically developed to give individuals an opportunity to discover who God has uniquely and creatively designed them to be. They can then prayerfully decide how to best “fit” their design into ministry. Considering the greater mission of the church, we all have specific roles to play, roles that God has designed and equipped us to fulfill. God lovingly creates us with interests, talents, personalities, and desires. He bestows upon us Spirit-powered gifts to build up His body for service to Him. In serving others, we honor and glorify Him through our witness of Christ’s love for all. Many ask, “How do I know what my role is?” Answering this profound, life-altering question sets the trajectory of your life toward the adventure God has for you. Once you know your passion, you will know your calling. Once you know your calling, you gain a view toward your Destiny.
