The Christians Guide to Eschatology: A Biblical and Historical in-depth study on the end times and life after death Drake Westfall

This is a historical and Biblical study of the End Times and life after death. We will discuss the various theories of prophecy and alleged prophecies, life after death, Hades, the Rapture, the Anti-Christ, the second coming, Armageddon, and much more. We will go through scripture to determine the truth in the Word of God. Attention is given to the history of various theories as well as their impact on past and modern day end time prophecies. When you have finished this book you will be able to confidently study, teach, and understand the various theories and make a stand on the truth. You will be able to not only understand what is really being said in the Bible, but be able to effectively combat false doctrine and false Eschatology. You will become a very effective teacher on the above Hermeneutic. Lastly you will be able to spread the Word of God with confidence, evidence, scripture, and a new found love and zeal for prophecy, Eschatology and Bible study.
