Book one in the Carter Country series.

Cade Carter is the oldest of seven children and the lead guitarist in the family's Country and Western band, Carter Country. With his mother urging him to remarry, a more than full-time job as a veterinarian, and trying to raise his two boys on his own, Cade is feeling a little overwhelmed. After losing his first wife in childbirth, Cade is afraid to risk his heart again, but he knows his mother is right. He needs help, and his boys need a mother.

Sarah McCutcheon has taken over her grandparents' old farm where she grows her own vegetables, raises chickens, and even milks her own cow. She also cooks up healthy meals for her food blog, and makes a pretty decent living from it. Life on a farm can be lonely, though. When Sarah meets Cade and his boys, her lonely life is changed to one full of fun and laughter. But does Cade really want Sarah, or does he just love her cooking?
