Memory Keeper (The Orchard House Mystery Series Book 3) Faith Helm

Claire March has seen her fair share of the paranormal since moving to Orchard House. But the mystery continues when she suspects her young son Eli is the reincarnation of William, a young man who lived in the home more than one hundred and twenty-five years before Eli was born. Needing to solve the mystery of the Van White's once and for all, Claire delves into the paranormal world one last time, hoping to put the spirits of the past behind them.

Still reeling from the revelations that her son could be William, they discover a secret room in the old Victorian mansion that may answer the question of who William really was. But in doing so they encounter the angry spirit of the murderous Phillip Van White who is determined to protect a long-buried treasure.

The mystery only deepens when Claire uncovers the truth about her biological family. Could the truth about where she came from tie her to Orchard House and the Van White's forever?
