With boundaries crossed and secrets revealed, the couples are back. Unfortunately, there may not be a chance to say, I love you. With Anthony's fate up in the air, Brooke is left once again to confide in the one person who may ruin her marriage for good. Struggling with her own battles, she does all that she can to prove to herself that she can save her marriage and tell the truth before it is too late.

David is coming back with guns blazing, but is not aware of how much trouble he has stirred up over the years. With retaliation against the HustleMade Squad being his main priority, he fails to trust his gut instinct and takes a huge loss he did not see coming. But not before he gets his revenge on Mecchi.

In Speechless 2: When Love Hurts, more truths are being revealed and it seems as though everyone is playing the waiting game to see who does what next. In this page turning novel from BriAnn Danae, she will be sure to grasp your attention from the first page, and literally leave you Speechless.
