To Forgive and Forget Jesse Dunkleberger

When Kevin Walker took his son to visit the gravesite of his departed family, he was trying to confront a tragic event from his past that refused to be expelled from his mind. But one look at the graves brought back the memory of both his parents and younger brothers and the day that everything, including his family, fell apart. Kevin failed in his search for atonement on that graveyard visit and it would be another ten years before his namesake, Kevin Jr., would take advantage of fate and try to save a broken soul and restore a family. But to overcome the challenges of the emotional wall his father built, Junior would first have to face his weaknesses and insecurities. With time running out, will the two be able to teach each other how to forgive and forget?
